

The Reiki Association of Australia Inc.

Practitioner Guidelines

- Maintain a high level of professional competence and development, always seeking to improve one's knowledge and skills.
- The role of the practitioner is to facilitate the health, healing and wellbeing of the client through a diverse use of information, resources and Reiki healing. To refer the client to another qualified professional if the needs of the client are beyond the scope of the practitioner. This recommendation is for the purpose of treating the whole person body, mind and spirit.
- Member is obliged to request the presence of a parent/advocate when treating children. Member is required to have a current 'Working with Children Check'
- The Member will strive to embody the Principles of Reiki and endeavor through the vehicle of 'Hands on Healing' to empower clients.
- Qualified Practitioner Members will upkeep Annual membership of Personal Indemnity Insurance.
- First Aid Training is recommended.
- Member will display at location of practice:
Reiki Qualifications
Current Membership of the Reiki Association of Australia Inc.
'Code of Conduct' for Unregistered Health Practitioner
- Member shall provide a simple explanation of a Reiki Treatment at the client's initial session and positions of hand placement.
- Respect and honour all lineage's and healing modalities without prejudice.
- Member will not make improper use of client's information, status, finances or authority, to gain or seek a benefit or advantage for self.
- Member should seek to embody the qualities of honesty, truth, acceptance, forgiveness, compassion and tolerance.
- To encourage and empower the Client to take responsibility for their health and wellbeing
- The Member will refrain from personal judgment, beliefs and honour the individual's right to 'freedom of choice'. Listen with compassion, respect and never assuming to know what is right for another, only serving to raise their awareness.